

Ditch the bar food in Pearland

by Chuck Finley, published May 20, 2011

Sure you could go to a bar and watch the NBA Playoffs, Astro games or any other spring and summer sporting event, but why not go someplace with decent food while you watch your favorite sports team?

Everyone has heard the term, “bar food.” That term is a four-letter word disguised as a two-letter word. Why should someone settle for “bar food” when they want to watch sports, gather with friends and family and relax with a cocktail or two?

In Pearland, there is a great place where you can do all the above but not have to refer to the food as “bar food.” While it is true that Beef O’Brady’s has a bar contained within, the food is so much better than the negative connotation that springs up from bar food.

Incredible delicious sandwiches, fish, chicken wings, juicy burgers and fresh and crispy salads are just some of the items on the large Beef O’Brady’s menu. To wash down the fine food, Beef O’Brady’s has a full line of alcohol and many brews that appeal to the masses.

Despite have the bar, Beef O’Brady’s is committed to a fun, family-friendly environment.

“We want our restaurant to be a place where families can come together in a fun, sports-like, environment,” said Stephanie Parkin of Beef O’Brady’s. “We are more restaurant than bar, but still manage to offer a full-line of alcoholic drinks.”

They host events like poker night, UFC pay-per-view matches and welcome sports teams following their games from Little League up through the Senior Citizen softball league.

So stop in today for some fine food, good drinks and fun times.

And ditch the “bar food.”

Beef O’Brady’s is located at 6200 West Broadway Street in Pearland. They can be reached at (281) 485-8877. Visit their website at <http://www.beefobradys.com/> and you can find them on Facebook.
